SIGNATURE PROGRAMMES

More than just a serviced residence, Citadines Raffles Place Singapore offers guests a well-balanced lifestyle through its signature programmes, activ∞ (pronounced as 'activate') and For the Love of Coffee.

activ∞ is a mixture of amenities and signature programmes for guests, enabling them to live, work and play seamlessly within the property and around the city. Guests can explore the vicinity and visit the local museums using the activ∞ digital toolkits provided by Citadines. They can also take a jog in the heart of the city, embracing an active lifestyle using the various fitness amenities and joining the residents' programmes.

For the Love of Coffee includes in-house programmes, workshops and collaborations with the local community to share Citadines' love for coffee and deliver unique coffee-related experiences to guests. Coffee, the second most traded commodity and most popular beverage globally, is the universal language that brings guests of Citadines together. Guests at Citadines Raffles Place Singapore can develop or deepen their passion for coffee and enjoy fresh, consistent and balanced brews daily, be it grabbing a cup from the kiosk in the lobby or exploring the city's favourite cafés nearby.

NEW AMENITIES AND SERVICE INNOVATIONS AT CITADINES RAFFLES PLACE SINGAPORE

Citadines Raffles Place Singapore is the perfect base for professionals working in the vicinity of CapitaSpring. The serviced residence offers studio, one- and two-bedroom units as well as loft apartments across eight floors, ideal for long-stay guests and business travellers. Combining functionality and comfort, the apartments feature contemporary designs with simple clean lines and geometric forms. Each apartment includes versatile furniture pieces that seamlessly convert the spaces from a work to rest setting, as well as specially commissioned unique works by local artists.

Stepping into the lobby, guests will be greeted by an integrated reception incorporating the relaxing vibes of a café. The space is made more vibrant and inviting to spur conversations between guests over a cup of coffee.

Guests can work and make new business connections at the coworking space. There are a variety of seats to suit different working styles including lounges, barstools at high tables and communal tables. The residents' kitchen on the property is also available for private meetings. Alternatively, guests can host a get-together with their loved ones in the kitchen or at the outdoor barbecue garden. Fitness enthusiasts will find themselves at home at the outdoor fitness park on level 9 with a swimming pool, a 400-metre running track and an indoor gymnasium.

WHERE THE CITY RISES

The property will also be the first among Ascott's properties in Singapore to deploy service robot ARIA (Ascott Robotic Intelligent Assistant) to perform a suite of tasks such as concierge services, leading guests to the rooms or facilities, delivering clean laundry and packages as well as refilling room supplies.

Guests who are members of Ascott's loyalty programme, Ascott Star Rewards (ASR), can use the Discover ASR mobile app to customise their stay by sharing their pre-arrival and in-stay requests; perform self check-in and check-out, make contactless payments and manage their ASR points. They can earn additional ASR points if they opt out of housekeeping service as part of Ascott's Go Green initiative.

To celebrate the opening of Citadines Raffles Place Singapore, ASR members can save up to 20% off the Best Available Rate from now till 31 March 2022. For more information, please visit: here.
